

Morazán Committee Leads Habitat for Humanity Service Trip

The Morazán volunteer committee continued their six-year collaboration with Habitat for Humanity during their recent trip to build a home for a Morazán family. The eight-member volunteer delegation led by John Leary spent eight days in July working along with the family mixing cement and mortar, laying bricks, moving building materials and painting. The volunteers and recipients were proud of their results and looking forward to future projects!

